RSTN CONSULTING BURSARY

Based on his own experience of financial hardship while growing up, Mr Steven Lim, Group CEO and Founder of RSTN Consulting, established the new bursary to help students facing similar financial challenges, and hopefully, inspire them to pay it forward in future when they are able to.

Starting in academic year 2021/2022, the gift will support 12 students per year, at $8,000 annually, over the next 10 years.

RAJAN SUNSHINE BURSARY AND SHAILA SUNSHINE BURSARY

Driven by a passion and desire to help those less fortunate, husband and wife, Jain Rajan and Jain Shaila, actively support a variety of causes.

In 2021, both contributed gifts to establish the Rajan Sunshine Bursary and Shaila Sunshine Bursary to support up to 16 students in total, for the full four years of their education. Their hope is that recipients will take the initiative to similarly pay it forward, and beam a ray of light on those less fortunate.

YONG PUNG HOW BURSARY

First established in 2013 and 2016 respectively, the Yong Pung How Bursary in Law and the Yong Pung How Bursary provides support to undergraduate students across all 6 schools within SMU. The endowed bursary is used to subsidise tuition fees of eligible students so that they can focus on their education.

In 2021, the impact of the bursaries was further extended with an additional gift from the family of the late Dr Yong Pung How, to increase the value of each award. Close to 100 students have been supported since its inception.

SUSTAINED AND SUSTAINABLE VALUE

Whether these gifts naturally evolved from groups with communal interests and experience, or whether they represent aspirations that cut across individuals and organisations, they reflect a growing base that ensures SMU has a stable foundation to develop and make a difference.

I WOULD LIKE TO EXPRESS MY GREATEST APPRECIATION FOR THIS AWARD. THIS AWARD HAS HELPED ME TREMENDOUSLY IN REDUCING MY STUDENT DEBTS AND GIVEN ME MORE MOTIVATION TOWARDS PUTTING IN MY BEST EFFORTS IN MY FINAL SEMESTER. I AM VERY GRATEFUL FOR THIS AWARD AND RECOGNISE THE KINDNESS OF OTHERS. I AM INSPIRED TO DO THE SAME AS WELL AND HELP THOSE WHO ARE IN NEED.
